

IMAGINiT Technologies Earns Autodesk Product Support Specialisation in Singapore

SINGAPORE, February 21, 2013 – Rand Worldwide (OTCBB: RWWI), a global leader in providing technology solutions to organisations with engineering design and information technology requirements, today announced that its IMAGINiT Technologies Singapore division has earned the Product Support Specialisation designation for value added resellers (VARs) from Autodesk, Inc.

“The receipt of this formal recognition by Autodesk confirms our position as an industry leading provider of customer support services to the Singapore design and engineering market,” said Japri Maming, director, IMAGINiT Technologies, Singapore. “We are very serious about ensuring that our clients receive the highest level of service from us and that at every interaction, they are more than satisfied with the experience IMAGINiT provides them. We have a team of highly qualified technical experts available to support our clients. In fact, in addition to our phone and in person support capabilities, we have created ProductivityNOW, an online portal for our support and subscription clients where they can create and log new support cases, view the status of current cases, review their entire history of support cases and search our database of more than 700 common support questions, all at their convenience.”

For more information on our various customer support initiatives and to find out how your company can begin benefitting from them, please contact an IMAGINiT representative at: +65 6226 0880 or via email at imaginit-sg@rand.com.
