

IMAGINiT Technologies Earns Autodesk Platinum Club Award

For Eight Consecutive Years IMAGINiT has Earned an Autodesk Platinum Club Award

BALTIMORE, MD – MARCH 25, 2021 — Recognized once again for successfully translating product and industry expertise into innovative customer solutions, IMAGINiT Technologies has earned an Autodesk Platinum Award which was accepted virtually on March 24, 2021 at Autodesk's One Team Conference.

"Once again, IMAGINiT has been awarded one of our coveted Platinum Awards," says Pete Baxter, vice president Americas Sales, Autodesk. "Combining industry and product expertise with a full range of professional and consulting services, the IMAGINiT team consistently delivers solutions to complex customer challenges, and we're happy to recognize their continued excellence."

Working with its customers, the IMAGINiT team uncovers the root of the challenges that the customer faces, implements the required technologies, incorporates any proprietary tools that extend the functionality of Autodesk technology, and provides dedicated training and support to ensure successful adoption in order to maximize productivity.

"We are very thankful to Autodesk for acknowledging our solution driven approach to each customer engagement and to our customers who continue to trust us to work alongside them to help them solve their most pressing design challenges," says Bill Zavadil, president, Rand Worldwide. "We're also proud of the IMAGINiT team's accomplishments and our history earning awards from our technology partners in the building design, civil engineering, construction, simulation and manufacturing industries."
