LiveWorx Sponsor Rand 3D will Showcase Comprehensive Suite of PTC Training Solutions at Booth #930

BALTIMORE, MD – June 18, 2018 – Rand 3D experts will share insights with event attendees at LiveWorx 2018 on how a comprehensive training program can increase the adoption and success of CAD and PLM implementations. LiveWorx is at the Boston Convention and Exhibition Centre in Boston, Massachusetts from June 17-20, 2018.

“With over 25 years of supporting PTC customers through targeted training solutions under our belt, our experienced team of Technical Training Engineers, Education Solution Representatives and Education Specialists help our customers learn their chosen software and improve their processes to maximize productivity,” says Meghan Foster, director of business development.

At LiveWorx 2018, Rand 3D is highlighting training solutions for Creo and Windchill, which include: In-person classes, LIVE Online training, custom training, self-paced eLearning and knowledge assessments. This wide selection of training options, taught by our in-house Technical Training Engineers, allows users to learn in the format that best suits their learning style.

Standard Rand 3D training classes use curriculum developed by ASCENT- Center for Technical Knowledge. ASCENT develops professional off-the-shelf and custom courseware for the industry’s leading engineering software applications, including those from PTC.

Stop by Booth #930 to learn more about Rand 3D training solutions for Creo and Windchill and while you are there, participate in the DX Challenge, formerly known as “Passport to Prizes,” and get your event passport stamped for a chance to win a prize provided by LiveWorx.
